REACHING YOUTH...

... IN CANADA ...

... IN AMERICA ...

... IN AFRICA ...

...AND AROUND THE WORLD

A day does not pass that the news media do not carry some report of the involvement of youth in some area and problem of the world. The cultural revolution in China has had its devastating impact on that land because of the determination of its youth to fanatically carry out the dictates of Mao Tse Tung. The riots in Hong Kong are being instigated and led by young people driven by a passionate desire for freedom from Great Britain. Across North America and around the world modern young people are leading sit-ins, marches, riots and revolutions; determined to bring about what they feel is a better world. These are young people with a purpose.

In contrast to these we have the Hippies, the flower children, the pot generation, the lost generation: those who, seeing no meaning at all in modern trends of society, have withdrawn into themselves, seeking to lose themselves in pre-occupation with drugs, free love and an endless search for reality. This lost generation is also our world.

Out into this fantastic world of youth have gone graduates from our college; convinced of the message they bear to this generation; confident in the Christ who has sent them forth; and challenged by the youth to whom they have been sent. In churches and missions across the world, on high school and university campuses in various countries, many of our graduates are grappling with the overwhelming challenge of presenting Jesus Christ as the only answer to the needs of today's youth.

It is to these faithful and diligent pastors, teachers and youth counsellors; missionaries on the field; workers on the campuses; youth directors and social workers; these of our graduates who have gone from our college and are now serving Christ among the youth of today; it is to these that we dedicate our 1968 Gateway.

DR. AND MRS. S. L. BOEHMER

"YOUTH"

Life at best is a fleeting thing. Scripture everywhere attests this fact. "What is your life? - It is even a vapour that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away."

Coupled with the brevity of life is its uncertainty. "Boast not thyself of tomorrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth." Not one of us knows if he'll see the light of another day. Well then ought we constantly to pray, "teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom".

Life, generally speaking, has three main divisions. There is the period of preparation extending over the first twenty or twenty-five years. Then there is the era of productivity for the following three or four decades. Finally there come the sunset years which, if properly understood and accepted, can bring some of the most blessed and rewarding of all life's experiences.

For our immediate purpose, let us concentrate on the days of one's youth. What an exciting period! Everything conceivable seems to be wrapped up in this package. Fun, frolic, studies, associations, enthusiasm, plans, frustrations, disappointments, accomplishments, achievements, decisions — these and a host of other experiences are all part of the picture. But all are so necessary to the shaping and tempering of a life.

It has been our unspeakable joy to have some little part in the preparatory process. Soon another graduating class will move out and on to God's next assignment. Ere long the days of youth will be but a dream and you will find yourselves in the thick of the battle. But you will not be alone. His word is so reassuring. "Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest."

Go forth, then, young people, always in His strength and never without the sense and assurance of His guidance. And remember that your quest for wisdom has just begun. We are never to cease to be seekers after truth — not riches, not worldly honours, not pleasures, not mere worldly wisdom, but the wisdom of God. Then, and only then, will you truly prosper.

Dr. S. L. Boehmer

DEAN OF FACULTY

REV. ROBERT B. STRIMPLE, B. A., B. D., Th. M.

Mr. Strimple hails from our neighbour to the south, coming from the state of Delaware. The university of that state bestowed upon him his B.A., and in 1959 he received his B. D. from the Westminster Theological Seminary, Philadelphia. He also received his Th. M. from this same seminary in 1965.

The highlight of the 1961 year for Toronto Bible College was when Mr. Strimple came to lecture in Theology, Christian Ethics, and Apologetics. In 1965 he was appointed Dean of Faculty, and has served in this capacity while also taking doctoral studies at the University of Toronto. In his position as Dean of Faculty, his responsibilities have included the recent accreditation, and supervising changes of courses and curriculum.

FROM THE STUDENT CABINET

Youth is making an increasing, dynamic impact on the world of today. The majority of the world's population is under 25 years of age and the potential to be found in these young people is incalculable. Great movements affecting the very structure of nations are being led by today's youth. The time has come when their voice is being heard in political, economic and social circles; and, where their voice is heard, changes are taking place.

Modern youth needs training in order that this potential may be harnessed and directed in strategic areas. It has been truly said, "Education without faith is a tool of destruction". The truth of this axiom is becoming more and more evident in the moral, theological, political and social areas of today. In view of this, it is our conviction that a Bible-centred training is of crucial importance because it ministers to the needs of the whole man. Toronto Bible College offers such a training program, which is intellectually stimulating and of a high spiritual quality. We as Christian students, covet this kind of training for the youth of today.

We believe that the Christ presented at Toronto Bible College is the answer to the needs faced by today's youth; and the Bible, taught at the College, contains the answers to the questions of modern youth.

The student cabinet trusts that somehow through this book, Christian youth will obtain a vision of the challenge facing us today.

CLASS HYMN

We Rest on Thee, our Shield and our Defender

"We rest on Thee" — our Shield and our Defender!
We go not forth alone against the foe;
Strong in Thy strength, safe in Thy keeping tender,
"We rest on Thee, and in Thy Name we go."

Yea, "in Thy Name," O Captain of salvation!
In Thy dear Name, all other names above;
Jesus our Righteousness, our sure Foundation,
Our Prince of glory and our King of love.

"We go" in faith, our own great weakness feeling,
And needing more each day Thy grace to know;
Yet from our hearts a song of triumph pealing;
"We rest on Thee, and in Thy name we go."

"We rest on Thee" — our Shield and our Defender!
Thine is the battle, Thine shall be the praise
When passing through the gates of pearly splendor,
Victors — we rest with Thee, through endless days.

"I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom; Preach the Word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry."
